NOTICE OF PLAYERS' IMPROVEMENT FUND SUBCOMMITTEE VACANCY

The City of Santa Barbara Golf Advisory Committee (GAC) is seeking interested individuals to fill two at-large positions on the Players' Improvement Subcommittee commencing January 2016. The term of service is one year.

The Golf Course Advisory Committee provides advice to the Parks and Recreation Department and Park Commission regarding golf course operations and other related matters. The Players' Improvement Fund Subcommittee provides advice to the GAC and Parks and Recreation department on matters pertaining to the use of the Players' Improvement Fund.

$1 from every paid greens fee, excluding Junior rounds, accrues to a fund dedicated to golf course improvements to improve the playability of the golf course and/or benefit the golfer experience.

The Players' Improvement Fund Subcommittee meets as needed and has no fixed schedule.

City employees are not eligible to serve on the Advisory Committee.

Please submit an application outlining your relevant experience and/or education, background information, and interest in serving on the committee to:

City of Santa Barbara
